Flowchart

This algorithm:

1. extracts frames from a video source
2. applies text recognition using Tesseract OCR to identify and group text in each frame
3. employs blur detection along with similarity comparison to filter out errors.
4. The user can navigate using a control script, triggering the image processing pipeline.
5. Converts the recognized text into audio for user playback using the gTTS library.